

Overhead to Underground Conversion

NAS PENSACOLA, FL

Provided for the removal of all overhead conductor and installation of new underground raceways cabling, primary junction cabinets and primary switches.

An aging overhead and remnants of an antiquated Paper Insulated Lead Conductor underground system still remained at NAS Pensacola and with a proactive approach, this project provided for the removal of all overhead conductor and installation of new underground raceways cabling, primary junction cabinets and primary switches along with refeeding all affected secondary service entrances.

OWNER/DEVELOPER	PowerSecure
-----------------	--------------------

MAGNITUDE RANGE	$1M-$5M
-----------------	------------------

SECTORS

Commercial / Industrial

SERVICES

100% Self Performed

